

WHO?

Who listens to whom when silence is around?
Who pushes whom, if somebody don't go?
who gets more when a kiss is given?
who can give us what we lack of?

Who teaches whom to be true?
who approaches to the one that rejects us?
who takes care of something that isn't our?
Who gives back whom the confidence?

Who releases whom from pain?
who welcomes whom in this home?
who fills of lighth every moment?
who gives meaning to words?

Who paints the universe in blue?
who keeps hopes untouched?

Who is next to the eternal thing:
the one who is on earth or the one that can't reach?
who goes into a dangerous neighborhood and gives his hand to their children?.

Who chooses whom as a partner?
who holds to whom doesn't have anything?
who feels closer to the imperfect thing?
who doesn't need a pair of wings?.

Who releases whom from pain?
who gives meaning to words?

Who paints the universe in blue?
